Chapter 5

Issue of Currency

Article 31

The currency of the Republic of Poland shall be banknotes and coins denominated in złoty and grosz.

Article 32

Banknotes and coins issued by NBP shall constitute legal tender on the territory of the Republic of Poland.

Article 33

1. The design and denomination of banknotes, and the design, denomination, alloy, fineness and weight of coins, as well as the volume of issues of banknotes and coins, together with the dates on which they are to be brought into circulation, shall be specified by the President of NBP by regulation.

2. The President of NBP may withdraw particular banknotes and coins from circulation. As of the date set by the President of NBP, such banknotes and coins shall cease to be legal tender on the territory of the Republic of Poland, and shall be subject to replacement at banks designated by the President of NBP.

Article 34

1. The banknotes and coins which do not fulfil the conditions set by the President of NBP because of being worn or damaged, shall cease to be legal tender on the territory of the Republic of Poland and shall be subject to replacement.
2. The President of NBP shall specify, by regulation, the detailed principles and procedure for the replacement of banknotes and coins referred to in para. 1.

Article 35

1. Counterfeit banknotes and coins shall be subject to forfeiture without compensation.
2. The provision of para. 1 shall apply accordingly to counterfeit banknotes and coins denominated in foreign currencies.
3. The President of NBP shall specify, by regulation, the principles and procedure for forfeiting banknotes and coins (the authenticity of which is suspect) and the procedure for handling counterfeit banknotes and coins. This regulation shall be agreed with the Minister of Justice and the minister competent for internal affairs.

Article 36

NBP may sell, in Poland and abroad, coins, banknotes and numismatic items for collection and other purposes, on terms and according to principles specified by the NBP Management Board by resolution.

Article 37

NBP shall organise the management of banknotes and coins of the Republic of Poland.

Chapter 6

Monetary Policy Instruments

Article 38

1. For the purpose of influencing the money supply and lending activity, NBP shall accumulate the required minimum reserves of banks, credit unions and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions.

2. Banks' required minimum reserves shall constitute a portion, expressed in złoty, of the złoty and foreign currency funds held in bank accounts; of the funds obtained from the issue of debt securities and of other repayable funds taken by banks, with the exception of:
 - 1) funds taken from another domestic bank, credit unions and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions;
 - 2) funds taken from a foreign bank pursuant to agreements concluded prior to the entry into force of the present Act;
 - 3) funds obtained from abroad for a period of at least two years;
 - 4) funds obtained pursuant to the contracts for maintaining individual retirement accounts and the contracts for maintaining individual retirement savings accounts within the meaning of the provisions on individual retirement accounts and on individual retirement savings accounts.
 - 5) funds obtained from the sale of mortgage secured securities with the redemption period of over five years and mortgage bonds with the redemption period of over five years.
3. Credit unions' required minimum reserves and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions' required minimum reserve shall constitute a portion, expressed in złoty, of the złoty and foreign currency funds held in the credit union accounts and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions' account; of the funds obtained from the issue of debt securities and of other repayable funds, with the exception of funds taken from another credit union, the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions or a domestic bank.
4. Cooperative banks shall hold their required minimum reserves at the affiliating bank, to which they are affiliated. The affiliating bank shall hold the required minimum reserves of the affiliated cooperative banks in its own account at NBP, in the amount corresponding to the minimum reserve requirements of the affiliated banks and its own minimum reserve requirements.
5. Credit unions shall hold their required minimum reserves at the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions. The National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions shall hold the required minimum reserves of credit unions in its own account at Narodowy Bank Polski, in the amount corresponding to the minimum reserve requirements of credit unions and the minimum reserve requirement of the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions.

Article 39

1. The minimum reserve requirement ratio may vary according to contractual deposit maturity, the type of currency concerned, as well as the kind of conducted financial operations constituting the source of proceeds.
2. The total of the required minimum reserves shall not exceed:

- 1) 30% of the total funds referred to in Art. 38, paras. 2 and 3, in the case of demand deposits,
- 2) 20% of the total funds referred to in Art. 38, paras. 2 and 3, in the case of term deposits.
3. The NBP Management Board may exempt a bank from satisfying the minimum reserve requirement during the implementation of a bank recovery plan.
- 3a. The NBP Management Board may exempt a credit union and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions from satisfying the minimum reserve requirement during the implementation of a programme of recovery proceedings.
4. Amounts due as interest on required minimum reserves shall be transferred to banks, credit unions and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions.

Article 39a

Banks, credit unions and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions shall deduct from the amount of required minimum reserves the amount equivalent to 500,000 euro, calculated according to the average exchange rate, as announced by NBP on the last day of the base month for the calculation of the minimum reserve requirement; in the event such rate is not announced on that day - according to the last rate announced before that day.

Article 40

1. The NBP Management Board shall set:
 - 1) the principles and procedure for calculating and holding the required minimum reserves,
 - 2) the types of funds which are not subject to the minimum reserve requirement,
 - 3) the principles for calculating interest on the required minimum reserves and for transferring the amounts due as such interest.
2. The NBP Management Board may determine the amount of vault cash held, in złoty, at a bank, credit unions and the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions that will be deemed to be the equivalent of the required minimum reserves held at NBP.

Article 41

1. In case of violation of the minimum reserve requirement specified in Art. 40, the bank, the credit union or the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions shall pay interest to NBP on the difference between the balance it is required to hold on accounts and the balance actually held on accounts.
2. The interest referred to in para. 1 shall be calculated at a rate set by resolution of the NBP Management Board, which shall not be higher than twice the lombard rate.

3. The NBP Management Board may give its consent to the bank, the credit union or the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions not to pay the interest referred to in para. 1 if the bank, the credit union or the National Association of Cooperative Savings and Credit Unions has had its operations suspended, is under liquidation or has been declared bankrupt.

Article 42

1. NBP may grant refinancing loans to banks, in złoty, in order to replenish their money holdings.
2. In granting refinancing loans, NBP shall consider the capability of the bank to repay the loan together with interest, on the contractual repayment dates, subject to the reservation indicated in para. 3.
3. NBP may also grant a refinancing loan to a bank for the purpose of implementing a bank recovery plan.
4. Refinancing facilities may be granted:
 - 1) up to a specified amount, as a line of credit,
 - 2) against pledge of securities, up to an amount corresponding to a specified proportion of the nominal value of such securities (lombard facilities),
 - 3) in other forms, as specified by the NBP Management Board.
5. The contract for a refinancing loan may be terminated by each of the parties with a seven-day notice.
6. If the financial situation of the bank using the refinancing facilities has worsened to the extent that a timely repayment of the loan is at risk, or if such a bank fails to observe the essential provisions of the loan contract, NBP may terminate the contract for refinancing loan and demand an earlier repayment of the loan, partial or total, within a period shorter than stipulated in such a contract.
7. The provisions of the Banking Act of 29 August 1997 (Journal of Laws of 2018, item 2187, as amended) shall apply to the contract for refinancing loan, subject to modifications resulting from the present Act.

Article 43
